GALLERY EXPERIENCE : Erastudio Apartment-Gallery

Patrizia Tenti, who studied at architectural University in Florence, after worked as a project and project manager for famous international fashion labels as Prada, Ermanno Scervino, etc and with names like Rem Koolhaas, Zaha Hadid, Mario Bellini for 14 years, decided to founder her own collectible art and design gallery in Brera, Milan in 2010. Erastudio Apartment-Gallery presents her favorite eras in the etymological and temporal sense, and “putting into space” in architectural terms. Erastudio is not only about juxtaposition of Tenti’s favorite eras such as Italian’s Radical Architecture 1960-1970s and 80’s period along with creating the right environment for every piece within a space and with art. Gallery focuses exclusively on unique piece, prototypes, limited editions of historical masters and contemporary design such as: Gianni Pettena, Riccardo Dalisi, Ettore Sottsass, Nanda Vigo, Urano Palma, Ugo Marano, Archizoom, Mario Ceroli etc, and contemporary pieces by Carlo Trucchi, Simone Ricart and many others whose work blurs the line between design and art.

FAIRS / EXHIBITIONS

2012 | 2011

Exhibition – “Silence”

via Palermo 5, Milan, Italy - January / September

“I wish objects were not only silent as such, instead, they should oblige whoever uses and looks at them to fall silent.” Ettore Sottsass, 1996. John Berger describes us as storytellers who go about, under the sky at night, drawing figures by joining stars together just as if they were tiny dots: the constellation that is generated becomes a reservoir of shining fragments which can be interwoven to set up a story - ready to be told.

2011

Exhibition – Fuorisalone - “Natura Morta”

via Palermo 5, Milan, Italy - April / June

A project by Studio TooGood designed to celebrate the darker side the natural world

2010

Exhibition – “Senses”

via Palermo 5, Milan, Italy - September / October

Senses a walk through rooms shadow and light. A new way to consider the Rationalism in art and architecture, understood as the ultimate paradigm to refer to, before the dominion of relativism, it can not matter humanization of rationalism itself. Curated by Miroslava Hajek, Marco Tagliafierro & Patrizia Tenti

2010

Exhibition – “Mnemosyne”

via Palermo 5, Milan, Italy

Erastudio introducing Mnemòsyne: a philosophy of the matter, a comparison among design pieces by designers Riccardo Goti, Ernst Gamperl, Sergia Avveduti and an evolution of the Fragile Memory Box project by Erastudio and Plumeria with furnishings made by Caneschi, based in Arezzo. Special guest: Fragile Milano classic design pieces. Curator: Marco Tagliafierro.

2010

Exhibition – “Boys Club”

via Palermo 5, Milan, Italy - January / February

The exhibition “boys club” is a group exhibition combining video, photography, fashion and performance that takes a fresh view on the portrayal of the adolescent male in contemporary society from the viewpoint of five international artists. Since the early 90’s there was been a steady shifting in the portrayal of the male figure in contemporary fashion, art and advertising. The hirsute testosterone driven man that covered the bills boards of the 70’s and 80’s have over the last 20 years been slowly replaced by an increasingly ever younger more youthful counterpart. Curator: Dopolavoro Golab, Patrizia Tenti and Martin Butler
